TOP 3 Attractions

Kamenica nad Hronom

It's worth stopping in Kamenica nad Hronom and taking a stroll through the village, where you'll find hundreds of cellars and where you can taste local wines and home-style food at the Open Cellars festival near river Hron every August. A 20-minute walk from the village you will find the confluence of the Danube and the Hron, where the river has created several islands and reefs.

Roman Catholic Church

Svodín

If you're interested in Highland traditions and customs, stop by the Svodín country house, housed in an old farmhouse. You can find out what kitchen utensils were used, what food was cooked, what clothes were worn and how the people of the area furnished their homes, and even discover the results of archaeological excavations in the village at the neighbouring archaeological museum. The country house regularly hosts traditional activities and cultural programmes. Walking around the village, you can also find out who exactly was the most famous inhabitant of Svodín, Pató Pál, and why Sándor Petőfi wrote a poem about him.

Mužla

The village, 10 kilometres from Štúrovo, is famous for grape-growing and wine-making, among other things, because the area bordered by the Danube plain and the Mužla hills is a perfect setting. There are more than 300 cellars in the Mužla vineyards, and a number of wineries organise tastings and vineyard tours – so it's worth stopping by to taste the local white and red wines. If you'd prefer to hike in the area, we recommend Csenkepuszta, where you can observe a unique wildlife, including sand violet, the seahorse's tail and the rare species of the wolf's bane.

+ 1 tip

At the end of the day's cycling, reward yourself with a delicious dinner in Štúrovo! Try the dumplings, which are most often paired with crumbly, succulent roast meat and steamed cabbage.
